

Contact: Maryann Seilstad, MCA, 406-442-4162

January 9, 2009

Montana Contractors' Association elects officers for 2009

HELENA – Ron Pike, president of Sime Construction, Bozeman, was elected president of the Montana Contractors' Association (MCA) during the organization's annual meeting Jan. 7-9 in Helena. Hal Fuglevand, president, Oftedal Construction, Miles City, was elected vice president. Newly elected to the board of directors was Russ Olsen, R&R Taylor Construction, Bozeman. Al Schellinger, Schellinger Construction, Columbia Falls, was elected as past president representative, and Chris Hindoién, HUB International, Missoula, was elected as president, Associates' Division.

Re-elected to the board were Deb Poteet, Poteet Construction, Missoula, and Dennis McCarthy, Arrow Striping and Manufacturing, Billings..

MCA is a Helena-based trade association representing commercial and industrial construction firms across Montana, and is a chapter of the Associated General Contractors of America.

###